Reference: Transportation Surcharge Accounts for Foreign Military Sales (FMS) Programs
Funded with Time Limited Appropriations (DSCA 12-10)

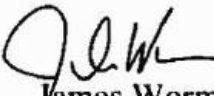

The referenced memorandum established four new transportation accounts and provided the line of accounting associated with each account. This memorandum adds a new transportation Surcharge Account and line of accounting that should be used when loading information onto shipping and billing systems for the Section 2282 Program. This new account is necessary to ensure accurate information is used when processing transportation charges associated with the FMS and Pseudo FMS programs.

The line of accounting for the new account is below.
